311 McADOO HOUSE.

VETS DINE THE PRESIDENT.

ALL BUSTLE AND CONFUSION---McKINLEY AT BUFFALO.

He is Escorted by Police and Regulars---124,000 People in 24 Hours.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

BUFFALO, Aug. 24.—Another beautiful day dawns upon the Veterans of the Grand Army. Crowds have been pouring in all night long on the trains that arrive at brief intervals. All is bustle and confusion at the station this morning. Thousands had gathered around as early as six o'clock, and the principal streets are filled with a jostling throng.

The feature of the day will be the arrival of President McKinley at three o'clock. A banquet will be tendered by the Columbia Post, of Chicago. At seven this evening there will be a parade of the naval veterans and former prisoners of war.

The President will be met at the station by a reception committee and escorted by mounted police and two hundred soldiers of the regular army.

There will be a meeting of army nurses and a reunion of the Loyal Home Workers' convention of the Camp Fire of National Veterans. The Grand Army road race and illuminated bicycle parade, and the Camp Fire of former prisoners of war will come off tonight.

The railroads estimate that they have handled a hundred and forty thousand people in the last twenty-four hours.

Bread Agitation in France.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

PARIS, Aug. 23.—The agitation throughout France for the abolition of the grain duties, still continues.

The popular excitement is very great at Tarbez, Rodez and Marsailles since the increase in the price of flour on Saturday.

The increase has reached forty centimes per sack in Marsailles and a further rise is expected.

Reliance for a relief of the situation is now placed arrivals from New York and Buenos Ayres.

Conference Still Hangs Fire.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 24.—Perhaps the only point yet unsettled at the conference between the strike leaders and coal operators is the proposition that each side will agree on arbitration provided the men will go to work first at its own terms. The conference resumed work today and there is hope that something definite may be done before the session is concluded.

Erie Express Water-Bound.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

PATERSON, N. J., Aug. 24.—The Erie Express for New York was stalled for several hours by an overflow of the Passaic River early this morning. Finally the train pulled back out of the flood and the imprisoned passengers were released and the train side tracked.

Havoc of Misplaced Switch.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—The Chicago and Calumet train was wrecked last night by a misplaced switch, fatally injuring Joseph Murphy and seriously injuring seven others. There were five hundred people aboard the train which, fortunately, was running slow.

Another Cronin Case in Chicago.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—The trial of Adolph Luetgert, a sausage manufacturer, for the murder of his wife, is in progress. It is one of the most sensational trials since the famous Cronin case.

Princess of Wales Takes Kneipp Cure.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

MUNICH, Aug. 24.—The Princess of Wales and Duke of Mecklenburg—Schwerin—have arrived at Woerishofen to take the water cure made famous by the late Father Kneipp.

BAZAAR PROMOTERS CONVICTED.

They are Fined and Imprisoned for Imprudence.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

PARIS, Aug. 24.—The trial of the promoters of the Charity Bazaar which was burned last May, was concluded today. The prisoners were charged with homicide. Baron Mackau whose wife was lost, was found guilty of imprudence and fined 500 francs. Bailac and Bagarachoff, the operators of the Kinematograph, which caused the fire, were found guilty and sentenced to one year and eight months in prison and fined three hundred and two hundred francs respectively.

REVOLT RAGING IN INDIA.

Rebels Attack a Fort and Are Repulsed—Sedition Spreading.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

SEMLA, Aug. 24.—Advices from the native revolt report that the fort at Sadda, in Kurran Valley, was attacked by the rebels yesterday, after preliminary skirmishing for a few days. The rebels were repulsed by the garrison. The subjugation of the Swati tribesmen is now complete. The sedition has reached Quetta, in Beloochistan.

General Ellis begins concerted movement against the insurgent tribesmen today.

GIBRALTAR A SLIGHT FAVORITE.

In the Coney Island Jockey Club Meet.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—The Coney Island Jockey Club begins its Autumn meet today. The great event will be the futurity. It rained all last night and there were light showers this morning.

A large number of starters will face the flag and it is even terms with a likelihood of a fluke victory. Never before was a field so moderate, but Gibraltar seems a slight favorite. The horse that gets away first will win the race.

Compiling Claims Against Us.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 24.—Spanish Minister, Dupuy DeLome, has been busy all summer compiling material for claims against the United States because of alleged filibustering expeditions from this country to Cuba. This material will be used to offset claims against Spain by Americans. These claims, for loss of property or unlawful imprisonment, are already filed with State department to the amount of fifty million dollars.

Strikers Ditch a Train.

By Wire to the THE TELEGRAM.

BRACEVILLE, Ill., Aug. 24.—A train on the Coal City branch of the Alton Railway was ditched near here last night, supposedly by striking miners. James Brennan, the engineer, and G. Brown, the fireman, were killed and the locomotive and nine cars demolished.

Idle Cotton Mills Resuming.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 24.—Dispatches, received from different parts of New Eugland and the South, report cotton mills, that have been standing idle, are resuming work.

Twenty in the New York Futurity.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Twenty youngsters will probably start in the Great Futurity today. The track is in fair condition. Howland will most likely be the favorite.

Lawn Party.

A lawn party for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid Society of West Market Street church, will be given on Thursday evening, 26th, on the lawn of the residence occupied by Rev. L. W. Crawford, on West Market street.

The ladies will supply various delicacies and cakes, and they will greatly appreciate the attendante and patronage of all friends of this worthy cause.

Special Commissioner David Starr Jordan says that seals have perceptibly decreased in Alaskan waters.

STORM-SWEPT NEW JERSEY.

THE TOWN OF RAHWAY IS ALMOST SUBMERGED.

Houses Swept Away and Roofs Broken in by the Downpour--Bridge About to Go.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

RAHWAY, N. J., Aug. 24.—A storm did great damage this morning throughout New Jersey. The river is eight feet above high water mark and four feet above the point reached during the heavy storm four weeks ago. The city is almost submerged, and the cloud-burst broke in farmers' roofs. Many out houses were swept away bodily and others moved from their foundations.

The Pennsylvania Railway is tied up and has been compelled to run loaded cars on bridges to hold them down.

The water came over an embankment ten feet high and has flooded the country for a half mile on either side of the river. Commuters are stalled in the water half a mile from Perth Amboy.

TWIN-CITY NEWS.

Sunday School Workers Take Winston--Other Matters.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

WINSTON, Aug. 24.—The fifteenth annual convention of the North Carolina Sunday School Association will convene in this city tonight. The opening service will be held at Centenary M. E. church, and the address will be delivered by Mr. Pierson H. Bristow, superintendent of Calvary Baptist Sunday School, of Washington City.

Delegates will be in attendance from all parts of the State, and each day's exercises promise to be very interesting. Thursday is the Grand County Mass Meeting and picnic, and it is estimated that from 6,000 to 8,000 Sunday school scholars will be in the line of march. Delegates from the various counties are coming in on every train, and the Twin-City will soon be in the hands of the Sunday school workers of the State.

It is learned that the Bell Telephone Co. will connect Raleigh with Washington, Baltimore and New York, and that all cities and towns in the State that use the Bell, exclusively, will be connected with Raleigh, thereby giving all such places full long distance connections. The manager for the Bell Co. at this point confirms this report, and says all the "pure in heart" will be connected with the Northern cities by Jan. 1st.

The Tobacco Fair Committee met last night and decided to hold the fair Nov. 4th, 5th and 6th. The warehouse in which the fair will be held was not decided upon, but a committee was appointed to determine in which house it should be held. A number of other committees were appointed and from now until the opening day nothing will be left undone that will in any way help to make the fair a big success.

MR. WOOD APPRECIATED.

The Winston People Regret to Lose so Good a Man.

In speaking of the permanent location of Mr. W. W. Wood in our city the Winston Sentinel has the following kind words to say of him, and congratulates Greensboro upon the acquisition:

"We had hoped that our former townsman, Mr. W. W. Wood, Sr., would again locate among us, but the announcement made in The Sentinel last week of the organization of the Berger-Wood Manufacturing Co., at Greensboro, indicates that he is to be permanently identified with that town. Greensboro is to be congratulated upon this acquisition to its citizenship, for Mr. Wood proves of value to any community in which he makes his home."

The Reidsville Excursion.

The excursion run by the Methodists of Reidsville passed here this morning at 9 o'clock. They brought down six cars well filled from Reidsville.

Another car was attached here and quite a number of our people went. The fare was extremely low, being only $1.25 from Greensboro to Raleigh and return.

The day is a delightful one for such a trip, and all the excursionists were in the best of spirits.

This is the first excursion that has been run from this section to Raleigh in some time.

RICHARDSON BROUGHT BACK.

He Is Now Confined in Jail and will Have a Speedy Trial.

Deputy Sheriff Davis went up to Winston last night for Luke Richardson, who has been confined in Forsyth jail for safe keeping. He returned with his prisoner on the early morning train, and Luke is now behind the bars of Guilford's jail awaiting trial.

The case will be taken during this week, and there is no doubt of his conviction. Our people are to be commended for the law-abiding spirit they have shown in the matter, and it is unnecessary to ask them, at this late hour, to allow the law to take its course. Luke attempted a crime the most heinous of all, and the officers of the law will see to it that he is punished as the merits of his case demand.

A TELEGRAM man visited and talked with the criminal in jail this afternoon. Luke is badly scared, but talks freely about the matter. He says he realizes his condition; knows the punishment for the crime of which he is accused is terrible and sure. During the conversation he neither denied nor affirmed his guilt.

Luke says he was not scared while in Winston jail and does not think he will be molested now as his trial is to come off this week.

It is plainly to be seen that Luke is suffering a great deal of anxiety. He has not eaten anything today, and while the other prisoners were eagerly eating their mid-day meal of pork and beans he stood silently by with a careworn and dejected look upon his counance,

DIED IN CENTRAL AMERICA.

Rev. S. A. Purdie, a Missionary of the Friends Church.

In the city of San Salvador, Central America, on the morning of August 6th, 1897, Rev. Samuel A. Purdie, a missionary of the Friends church, peacefully fell asleep, after four days intense suffering. His last words to one of the natives standing by, were: "I have had much pleasure in commencing the work of the Lord in Salvador, and I wish the eminent Salvadorians to continue the work I have commenced."

Mr. Purdie was a native of New York, but was widely known in North Carolina, he being one of the first teachers placed in this field by the Baltimore Association of Friends. He was first a teacher at Centre, Guilford county, subsequently at Black Creek and other places in Randolph county, after which he devoted about 24 years of his life to missionary work in Mexico.

He had been in mission work in Central America about eighteen months at the time of his death.

Thus has passed away one of the most energetic and successful mission workers of the Society of Friends in America.

Sunday School Association.

The fifteenth annual convention of the North Carolina Sunday School Association will meet in Centenary Methodist church, Winston, this evening at 8 o'clock. The address of welcome will be delivered by Rev. Dr. W. S. Creasy, pastor of Centenary church, and the response will be made by J. H. Southgate, of Durham.

Some of the most prominent Sunday school workers of our State and county will be in attendance, and the topics to be discussed will be live and up-to-date, calculated to advance the efficiency of Sunday school work.

Prof. J. Y. Joyner, of the Normal College, is one of the prominent speakers, and will deliver an address on "The church's opportunity in the Sunday school."

The county officers' conference will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. It will be conducted by Prof. F. S. Blair, of Guilford College.

For Retailing Without Licenses.

The grand jury found two true bills of indictment against R. J. Lindsay, proprietor of the Bellevue Hotel, High Point, for retailing intoxicants without license. Mr. Linsay was arraigned in court this morning and plead guilty to both charges. Judgment was suspended upon the payment of $25 and costs in one case and $10 and costs in the other case.

Another New Building.

Work has commenced on a large storeage warehouse for N. J. McDuffie. The building is to be of brick, and will be 50x43. O. D. Boycott is the contractor.

In yesterday's issue we inadvertently stated that a marriage license had been issued to a "colored" couple; it should have been white.

EPHRAIM UP TO DATE.

For some time the Progressive Farmer has shown a falling off in its pristine howling propensities, but in this issue it serves notice that it proposes to resume the tune at the old pitch. Dollar wheat seems to have had the same effect on it that water has on an animal with hydrophobia. Others may differ as to the cause for such a price but it proposes to nip the heresy of better times in the bud by a simple denial, tacit if not open, that there is any such thing as dollar wheat. The Progressive Farmer strikes us as being disputatious but not argumentative. It is possessed of that happy mental constitution that never troubles itself about facts or their logical sequences; capable of fatuous adherence to preconceived theory, though all the facts condemn it as absurd.

These are the characteristics that mark your true calamity howler. There are degrees in howling as in everything else. Your died-in-the-wool howler is a very pharisee among his brethren; takes professional pride in his howling: he is absorbed in his art; he resents anything that distracts his attention from it; he would not even stoop to examine prosperity if did not come by the door he expected; he would be very grievously disappointed if it came at all, for then he would lose his place in the community.

The man who said "it is the hit dog that howls" was very much mistaken. It is the dog that has never been touched that howls loudest and longest; he is tickled with the music of his own voice.

A great many penple have been unjustly called howlers lately; they complained and had a right to complain. Now, however, we shall see the sheep separated from the goats, the genuine howlers from the spurious. The hit dog will go about his business and be quiet; the unhit will take advantage of his silence to make himself increasingly heard. The man who grumbled because times were hard, will cease when they are better; the fellow who grumbled because it was his nature, or because he hoped to gain by it, will keep it up to the end.

THAT excrescence on the body of modern journalism, the New York World, prints a dispatch from Weyler, in which he says: "I answer the World with the frankness and truth which characterizes all my acts." If the dispatch was not made up in the World office, which is, indeed, most probable, it certainly secured a "scoop" on the bit of news that Weyler's actions were "characterized by frankness and truth." So far as impartial observers have been able to judge, they have been characterized by butcheries in secret and a gross perversion of facts. There is something especially fit about the World acting as the champion of Weyler.

THOSE Greeks who are urging that hostilities be renewed evidently do not know when they have had enough of a bad thing. It is more than probable that of the three thousand who signed the address calling for the prosecution of the war, not three faced the Sultan's legions on the Thessalian frontier.

THE latest is that the strikers will enjoin the operators from employing new men to run the mines. Now let somebody enjoin the judge from issuing the injunction and then let somebody else pitch the whole lot into a coal pit, judge and all, and fasten down the trap door and enjoin them with a shot gun not to come out until they have been restored to their proper senses. It is scarcely legal, but would be exceedingly salutary.

IT IS very true that "the people like to be humbugged" but they always demand that the humbug be a new one. When "Professor" Falk comes forward with a prediction that the world will come to an end in 1899, he surely forgets that little requisite to a good, working humbug. Even the humbug-loving people have grown weary of the fellow who proves by irrefutable figures that the old world is going out of business.

WHEN the Philadelphia Times undertakes to show "why swelling always follows a blow," it tackles a pretty tough thesis. We can show many instances where a swelling of the head precedes the "blow"—not to mention the blow that "almost killed father."

THE meanest man of the year is the Chicago doctor who hired a thug to throw vitriol in his wife's face. Even the thug gave up the job in disgust. If all the criminals in the country were put in a pot and boiled that doctor would rise to the top as the scum.

GENERAL NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

Five children were drowned by the capsizing of a raft in Toronto, Ont.

Special Commissioner David Starr Jordan says that seals have perceptibly decreased in Alaskan waters.

William A. Eddy, of Bayonne, N. J., has invented a vistascope for seeing distant objects reflected in midair.

Captain Beade's polar expedition, composed of Austrians and Hungarians, has returned from the frozen north.

The Postoffice Department surpassed all previous records on Saturday, when 466 fourth-class postmasters were appointed.

Mrs. J. W. Ward, of Augusta, Ga., claims $25,000 from the Medical College of Georgia for dissecting her husband's body.

Pittsburg coal operators will today have a conference with representatives of the United Mine-Workers and arbitration may follow.

An unknown man left an oil painting at a police station in New York purporting to a work of Guido Renni, executed by him in 1618.

A board of army officers will meet in Washington on September 21 to consider the location of the present force of artillery for seacoast defenses.

The peace negotiations between the government of Uruguay and the insurgents have failed, and it is announced officially that the war will go on.

It is generally understood among Democratic leaders in New York that their State committee, at its meeting next month, will ignore the silver question.

It is understood that Governor McLaurin will appoint his brother to fill out the unexpired term in the Senate of the late Senator George, of Mississippi.

The King of Benin, in West Africa, has made his obeisance to the British authorities, who captured Benin City after the massacre of Consul Phillips, and his expedition.

J. W. Rea, a strike leader in West Virginia, says that he has received a legal opinion that the striking miners may use the injunction to prevent new men taking their places.

The administration will endeavor to negotiate with Spain a treaty for a commission to settle the claims of citizens of both countries on account of the Cuban insurrection.

The Legislature of Tennessee at its next session will elect a successor to Senator Bate for a full term and also a Senator to serve out the unexpired term of the late Senator Harris.

The police of Constantinople have arrested two Armenians, at whose residence they found two bombs. The prisoners confessed that they intended to commit outrages by the use of these bombs at the Russian and German embassies.

MR. LEE TELLS ON THEM.

EXPOSES THE BLIND TIGERS OF HIGH POINT.

Creates a Great Sensation--The Meetings Close Thursday Night --Other News.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C., Aug. 24, '97.

Rev. J. W. Lee is determined to run liquor selling out of High Point and out of Guilford county. In his efforts here he is supported by the best citizens in town. He threw off the mask last night and stopped whipping the devil around the stump. He declared that intoxicating drinks can be secured at Mr. Jordan's marble yard on Main street, and can be bought at the Bellevue Hotel, at the place of a man named McLeod and also from a man named Brooks. This dipping into personalities has given the meeting a sensational tinge and Mr. Lee and his methods have been the talk of the town today. Our preachers are given to deal in generalities, and this way of particularizing goes hard with us, but there is no doubt about the fact that there is no other way to break up the illegal traffic in our town, and as Mr. Lee declared last night, "that thing must be stopped."

The sermon tonight will be on "Forgiveness of Injuries." Thursday night the meeting will close with a grand temperance rally, when an anti-saloon league will be organized. "I tell you, brethren," said Mr. Lee, "Guilford county is going to be dry the first opportunity we have to make it dry." He also declared that he was going to stump the county for temperance at the first opportunity he had to do so and would beg his way if he could not get along without it.

Mr. Lee goes from High Point to Randleman, where he will begin a series of meetings next Sunday, either in St. Paul church or in his tent.

Bill Fife will begin a meeting at this place on Sunday, the 5th day of September.

J. H. Ferree, of Randleman, was in town yesterday.

A good many of the High Point young people were among the jolly crowd who attended the lawn party at Archdale Friday night and were poisoned by the ice cream served. They have all been laid up and are not all out yet, but they are reported as doing well.

Handsomest in the State.

Greensboro is said to contain the handsomest furniture store in the State. Everybody who sees McDuffie's large, new store is struck with its beauty.

Traveling men say it is by all odds the prettiest furniture store in North Carolina.

We are glad to know that Mr. McDuffie is doing a business in keeping with his building.

The Court House Renovated.

Sheriff Hoskins says improvements are the order of the day, hence he has had the court house thoroughly renovated. The windows have been washed, the carpets cleaned and new matting put down inside the bar. A new chair graces the judge's stand, and other signs of prosperity prevail.

Probably a bubble from the McKinley prosperity has struck us.

Royal Sons of King David.

The grand lodge of the Royal Sons of King David, a colored secret society, is in session here. The railroads are giving reduced rates and quite a number of colored people from different sections of the state are in attendance.

Run over by a train.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—A carriage containing H. O. Claughton, a well-known attorney of this city, and Miss Villa Custis, daughter of W. G. N. Custis,, was run down by a train on the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad at Deanwood, a short distance from Washington, about seven o'clock last night. Both were injured so seriously that they died before reaching the city. Claughton, who was a widower, leaves four children.

McLaurin Improving.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 20.—A telegram today from Bennettsville in regard to Senator McLaurin's condition, says: Senator McLaurin is convalescing very favorably. No symptoms left except the prostration, which is still very great.

To Our City Subscribers.

If you have subscribed for THE TELEGRAM and don't get it, or receive it irregular, please let us know. Send us word, drop as a postal, phone or call at the office and inform us of the fact. We will be sorry for the mistake having occurred and will try to remedy it.

The machinery is arriving for the Fisher mines, of Cabarrus county; the mines are said to be unusually promising.

The indications are that Trinity College will open well this year. Several young ladies will matriculate for the coming session.

The Connelly Springs management has received an order for eight cases of the water from the springs to be shipped to London.

Keeper Burns, of the State Capitol, has been bound over to court, charged with assault, with a deadly weapon, on Charles Caldwell, colored.

Snow in August is something unusual, particularly in this section of the State, but it snowed last night with a vengence up the Western road.

All justices of the peace but two were up before the grand jury at the last term of Cabarrus court for failure to comply with section 909 of State Code.

Virgil Lusk has been appointed to the receivership of the defunct Asheville bank, Powell's appointment having been held up because he was a Democrat.

Warm times are promised when the commissioners of Halifax are indicted for not holding the school election. The people of the county are said to endorse their stand.

There were 5,000 people at the soldiers' reunion at Louisburg yesterday. Justice Walter Montgomery and ex-Senator Ransom addressed the Crowd and were enthusiastically received.

Subpœnas have been issued for thirteen sheriffs by the railroad commission for failure to furnish abstracts of taxable property in their counties. Guilford county is among the number.

President John B. Lenning, of the Durham and Charlotte railroad, says 200 men are now grading. Work began today on the Durham end. Twenty-three miles will be in operation in two weeks.

F. M. Simmons, member of State Central Committee, says in an interview: "The keynote of the coming campaign will be the record of the fusion administration, white supremacy aud a straight fight."

Parties who came down on the Norfolk train this morning stated that it snowed near Old Fort and other points up the Western last night and that the thermomometer indicated a temperature that would make the average low country man green with envy.—Salisbury World.

T. P. A. ORGANIZED HERE.

THE FIRST POST TO ORGANIZE IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Officers and Directors Chosen Last Night--Objects of the Order and its Work

The first Post of the Trayelers Protective Association of America was organized here last night. The organization of Post A was brought about largely through the efforts of Mr. Shields, of Simpson-Shields Shoe Co., who was formerly president of a post in Knoxville, Tenn.

The meeting was held in the office of the Simpson-Shields Shoe Co. and was called to order by W. E. Jenkins, president of the Maryland division of the order, who acted as temporary chairman and William Simpson, of Merchants' Grocery Co. was made secretary pro tem.

Pemanent organization was effected by unanimously electing M. L. Shields, president. Other officers elected as follows: Herman Jones, secretary and treasurer; J. W. Cone, 1st vice-president; Charles Watson, 2nd vice-president; J. B. Stroud, 3rd vice-president. W. F. Clegg, 4th vice-president; Peter P. Yates, 5th vice-president.

The following compose the Board of Directors:

Ceasar Cone, Wm. Simpson, C. H. Ireland, J. S. Hunter, and J. W. Lindau.

The chairmen of committees are:

Railroad Committee—John W. Merritt.

Hotel and Press Committee—T. A. Lyon.

Legislative Committee—Ceasar Cone.

Employment Committee—Chas. McKnight.

Dr. Edward R. Michaux was chosen physician, Dr. Egbert W. Smith chaplain, and Alfred M. Scales attorney.

There were twenty-one members enrolled.

This move puts Greensboro, more than ever, in line with the best in latter day commercial progress.

This association is the most powerful and extensive of the drummer organizations. It has posts in thirty-two states and in 110 cities, with a membership of over 2,000. Only a traveling man or one actively engaged as a wholesaler can become a member of the order.

The national order has already secured a decision from the U. S. Supreme Court against the Drummer's License Tax; has secured for its members better hotel accommodations; has reduced the rate of transportation by securing from most railway companies interchangeable mileage.

It also provides a $5,000 accident insurance policy for each of its members, and has established a weekly benefit of $25 in case of injury by accident, for a period of one year.

The organization had its origin in Denver, Col., in 1890, and its rapid growth since that time, placing it in the lead of all like orders, is the best proof of its usefulness and beneficence.

Post A will hold its next meeting in the parlor of the Benbow on Saturday night of this week. All members are requested to be present, and traveling men genearlly are cordially invited to attend.

THEY DIDN'T GO.

Our Baseball Boys Greatly Disappointed.

Our baseball team was to have left this morning for Concord, where they had dates to play today and tomorrow. Yesterday afternoon it was found that it would be impossible for the boys to get off, and the fact was telegraphed to the manager of the Concord team.

Court being in session and business duties of one or two of the boys detained them. One of their best players is on the jury and another is a witness in court. Two others work on the railroad and could not get off.

The whole crowd, from the manager down, were a sick looking set this morning. They regret exceedingly their inability to fill their engagement and the disappointment it will likely cause the Concord boys. Both teams are strong and some good playing could have been expected.

Manager Howard says they will fill their engagement at the earliest time convenient to both teams.

A Three-Dollar Gold Piece.

Tom Matthews, one of the popular clerks at the Benbow, thinks he has a curiosity in the shape of a three-dollar gold piece which he is exhibiting to his friends. It bears on one side the inscription, "United States of America—1878." On the other side are the words, "Three Dollars."

It is a rather rare specimen and Mr. Matthews says he is going to hold on to it.

The Southern Painting Things.

The Southern's painting crew came in from Guilford College on the Winston noon train today. They have been at work out at Guilford College and have come to Greensboro to do some painting here for the company.

James W. Murray, a young attorney of Burlington, came up last night to look after some legal business.

Mrs. T. N. Ivey and children returned on the noon train from an extended visit to relatives in Charlotte.

Miss Lola Carraway leaves tonight for Winston to attend the Sunday school convention at Winston.

Prof. R. L. Smith, an ex-member of the Legislature from Stanly county, was here this morning on his way to Kernersville.

C. B. Yuille, buyer for the American Tobacco company at this place, returned last night from a trip to Henderson.

Rev. Dr. John R. Brooks came up from Charlotte on the noon train on his way to the Sunday School convention at Winston.

J. Speight Hunter, who was appointed receiver of the Manchester, N. C., cotton mills by Judge McIver, left last night for that place.

C. W. Petty went down to Haw River on the noon train to make an estimate for some work for the Haw River Manufacturing Company.

President Kilgo, of Trinity College, came up from Durham on the noon train en route to Winston to attend the Sunday school convention.

Miss Emma White, one of the teachers in Trinity High School, passed through this morning on her return home from a visit to Durham.

Winston Sentinel. Mrs. Jack Hayden, of Greensboro, spent yesterday with her sister, Miss Ethel Thomas, at the Salem Academy, returning home last night.

Rev. L. K. Probst, pastor of the English Lutheran church, of Atlanta, Ga., and secretary of the board of missions of the Lutheran church, South, was in the city this morning.

Winston Sentinel: Miss Mary Trotter, of Greensboro, spent last night in the city, the guest of Miss Annie Leonard, returning home this morning. She has been at Piedmont Springs for the past two weeks.

Miss Sadie Hanes, one of Winston's charming young ladies, came down this morning to enter the summer school at the Normal College. Miss Hanes attended the Normal last year and has many friends here.

Will Guthrie, who was formerly with J. Henry Phipps, has accepted a position with Thacker & Brockman and will assume his new duties tomorrow. Will is a clever and energetic young man and has our best wishes.

Winston Journal: Mrs. E. D. Osborne has been in the city several days arranging to move to Greensboro. For the past year or more she has been in Eastern Carolina, though she has never given up Winston as her home. She expects to go to Greensboro Wednesday.

THE NORTH CAROLINA FRIEND.

A New Religious Newspaper to be Established Here.

Some days ago THE TELEGRAM made mention of the fact that a new religious paper would soon be established in Greensboro—probably about the first of September. Since then the arrangements have been made and the first issue will appear next Friday.

It will be called the North Carolina Friend, and will be published weekly as the organ of the Friends' Society in North Carolina. The Friends have no organ in this State. There are 10,000 Quakers in North Carolina and we see no reason why the venture should not prove a success, with the support they will likely get from other States. Prominent Friends from this and other States have promised to lend the enterprise their hearty support.

Messrs. Charles. W. Petty and Enoch L. Stout are the managing editors of the new paper. We wish these two worthy young men abundant success.

ARRESTED FOR BLOCKADING.

One of Uncle Sam's Servants Runs a "Blind Tiger."

It isn't often that a man is surprised more than was Thomas May, who carries the mail between Greensboro and Rock Creek, when he arrived at the postoffice here with the mail.

It seems that some one in Rock Ceek section has been illegally dealing in the "ardent" for some time, and suspicion rested on May. Sufficient evidence to warrant his arrest was secured, and a deputy United States Marshal was lying in wait for him at the postoffice this morning.

When he delivered the mail to one of the clerks the marshal immediately placed him under arrest. May succeeded in giving bond and left at 10 o'clock with the mail for Rock Creek.
